

Fulbright Hong Kong General Education Program

American Scholars in Cohort II, 2009-2010

Dr. David A. Champion is Associate Professor of History at Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Oregon. (campion@lclark.edu) Born in Spain, Champion has a BA from Georgetown and MA and PhD degrees from the University of Virginia. An historian of the British empire, Champion, Champion has been active in general education issues at Lewis & Clark, a prominent liberal arts college in Oregon. He will be hosted by the HK Baptist University.

Dr. Joseph Chaney is Director and Associate Professor of English at Indiana University - South Bend. His BS in English literature is from Beloit College in Wisconsin, and his MA and PhD, also in English, are from UC/Irvine. Chaney was Director of General Education at the Indiana University South Bend from 2004-08. (jchaney@iusb.edu) He will be hosted by the General Education Unit of the Chinese University of HK.

Dr. Janel Marie Curry is Dean and Professor of Geography Geology Environmental Studies at Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Michigan. (jcurry@calvin.edu). Dr Curry received her BA from Bethel College and MA and PhD degrees from U of Minnesota - Twin Cities. Her work emphasizes interdisciplinary teaching, faculty development and learning assessment. At Calvin, Curry began an Enterprise Center and an Environmental Assessment program. She will be hosted by the City University of HK in spring, 2010.

Dr. Hedley Freake is Professor of Nutritional Sciences in the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Connecticut -- Storrs. Born and educated in the UK, Freake has an BA in Nutrition and PhD in Physiology. He has headed the General Education Oversight Committee and launched a new GE program for the U of Connecticut emphasizing global competencies for undergraduates. (hedley.freake@uconn.edu) He will be hosted by the HK Polytechnic University.

Dr. Paul Hanstedt is the Director for General Education in the Department of English of Roanoke College in Salem Virginia. (hanstedt@roanoke.edu) He has a BA in American literature from Luther College (MN), an MA in creative writing from Iowa State U, and a PhD in Language and Literature from Ohio State U. He led the reform of the GE curriculum at Roanoke and developed a writing program for first year students involving faculty across the College. He will be hosted by the HK Institute of Education.

Dr. Gray Kochhar-Lindgren is Director of University Studies and Programs, Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences, University of Washington at Bothell. He has a PhD in Interdisciplinary Studies from Emory U in Atlanta. He heads a unique academic program for all first-year students emphasizing learning communities and campus-community partnerships at the new UW-Bothell campus north of Seattle. (gklindgren@uwb.edu) He will be hosted by the HKU.

Also associated with the FHKGEP for 2009-2010:

Dr. Reza Hoshmand, Coordinator of General Education at the City U, is a former Fulbright scholar to the Faculty of Business at City U. (ahoshman@cityu.edu.hk). Born in Afghanistan, he attended the East West Center and received his PhD from U of Hawaii in economics. He taught in the interdisciplinary program at Cal State Pomona, and later was Dean of Business at Daniel Webster in New Hampshire.

Dr. David Pong is Chairman of the History Department at the University of Delaware (dpong@udel.edu). Pong was born in HK and educated in London to the PhD in Asian history, with emphasis on 19th century China. At the U of Delaware, Pong created interdisciplinary courses for freshmen, served on the university GE committee, and led the creation of a comprehensive first year experience program including service learning, and a capstone course. He will be based in the History Dept and the Centre for East Asian Studies at CUHK, while also collaborating with the General Education Office and with the Fulbright team on GE on developing general education in HK.

The Fulbright Hong Kong General Education Project (FHKGEP) is organized by the Hong Kong America Center, with major private support from the Po & Helen Chung Foundation. Dr. Glenn Shive, Director of the HKAC, is at glennshive@cuhk.edu.hk.